Dulce Rodriguez, LMSW, PLADC, is a therapist at Casa Fortaleza, a non-profit agency dedicated to help survivors of sexual violence in Central New Mexico's Spanish-speaking communities. Dulce has worked with Spanish-speaking communities for more than 15 years under different roles, mostly serving immigrant families in the fields of domestic and sexual violence. She is also the founder of Proyecto Educación Sexual, a non-profit agency that provides evidence-based and culturally-relevant sexuality education to families in Spanish. She is a member of the American Association of Sexuality Educators, Counselors and Therapists, and is currently pursuing a Sexuality Educator Certification through such organization.

Joann Schladale, M.S., L.M.F.T., specializes in positive youth development, sexual health, trauma, violence prevention, problem sexual behavior, teen pregnancy prevention, and Motivational Interviewing.

6 hours of Social Work and Counseling CEU's have been approved by NASW-NM.
Counseling and Social Work CEUs are reciprocal.

This training was made possible with funding from New Mexico Department of Health, Office of Injury Prevention and New Mexico Human Services Department, Behavioral Health Services Department
